“ This truly hurts our hearts. Drew, you were such a good friend to us from the first time we met you while you were working at Chicks on Kater Street. We formed a great friendship and you were around for some of the best years of mine and Brendan’s life. I have so many memories with you bartending at Chicks, heading to wooly mammoth after closing up, kayaking in Jersey and of course you catching the garter at our wedding. You showed us what it meant to be from South Philly. You loved that city more than anything. I will cherish the photos we have of you dancing your heart out at our wedding with the biggest smile on your face. Your kindness will never be forgotten. May you rest in peace. Go Birds.
