

Anthony H. Stolfo

July 18, 1935 - November 12, 2024

Anthony H., age 89, passed away peacefully on November 12, 2024, surrounded by his loving family. Born on July 18, 1935, Anthony grew up in South Philadelphia and graduated from Southern High School. After high school, he became a merchant marine. At just 22, he purchased his uncle Al's grocery store, marking the beginning of a life of hard work and community-building. In 1967, Anthony met and married Liz, the love of his life, and together they embarked on a beautiful journey, moving to Brigantine, NJ, in 1969. They made Brigantine home, raising their family and becoming cherished members of the community. Anthony was a dedicated businessman and opened several beloved establishments, including Penn Food Market, the Golden Dolphin Motel, Rum Point Pub, Atlantic Casino Training Academy, Stolfo's Bar, and Tony's Steaks and Shakes. Through his work, Anthony touched countless lives, bringing warmth, laughter, and care to those around him. A man of deep faith, Anthony was a devoted member of his church and lived a life rooted in kindness and generosity. He was the cherished son of the late Charles and Anna Stolfo, a devoted husband to Elizabeth (Boales), a beloved father to Darlene, Anthony, and the late Cheryl (late Adam Goodman), and a proud grandfather to Olivia, Brandon, Anthony, and Addison. His memory will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew him. Family and friends are invited to celebrate Anthony's life. Viewing will be held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Thomas Church, 331 8th St. S., Brigantine, NJ 08203, with a funeral mass at 11:00 a.m. Entombment will follow at Holy Cross Cemetery in Mays Landing.
