“ I was saddened to learn that Charlie passed away last November. Charlie and I worked together for almost seven years while he was assigned over to the FBI. I have very fond memories of our time working together and the times we vacationed in Florida. I was a relatively younger agent at the time and learned a lot from Charlie. I remember that Charlie arrived earlier to work than me and he would always have a hot tea on my desk. While I never met Charlie's daughters, he often talked about them in a way that made me feel that I knew them without meeting them. May Charlie rest in peace and find the comfort of the Lord. May his family be blessed by God and the memories they will cherish. RIP Charlie.
