“ I offer my deepest sympathy to the family of Attorney Mario D'Adamo III. When I started working for the Family Court it was Mario who made my days bearable and fun. Mario had a unique way of making everyone feel special. Although my time at the family court was transient, I am forever grateful to have met Mario and very emotional about his sudden passing. Because Mario's personality was so big, he leaves so many precious memories behind.

Thanks for everything Mario, you already missed. I am praying for your family and your family court family too.

“ Mario was one of a kind. He had an incredible charisma, worked very hard and was deeply focused on his goals and interests. He had a profound love for life and the people in it. You never had to guess what Mario was thinking or how he felt about something. He had the quickest wit of anyone I've ever known, and he could have you laughing for what seemed like days. He loved South Philly almost as much as he loved his friends and family. It will be impossible to forget the memories & stories of him b/c they are so rich in values, wisdom, laughter, and love. For as accomplished as he was, Mario was most proud of the people in his life. He showed us every day that life is meant to be embraced fully and unapologetically. I am so proud to call him my cousin, and while his loss is deeply painful, I know that Mario's spirit will stay with us all until we meet again.

“ I have so many memories with Mario, I could go on for hours. Mario was always hardworking when it came to his career and the gym, but his sense of humor was unmatched. His presence was so impactful and significant that his absence truly leaves a void that cannot be replaced. Mario we will all spend the rest of our lives missing you. You are so loved. My heart is broken by the tragedy that has befallen one of the kindest families I have ever met.
