

Elizabeth "Betty" Piccone

January 19, 1929 - September 8, 2025

Elizabeth "Betty" passed on September 8, 2025.

Cherished wife of the late Albert "Lou Lou" Esposito and Albert Piccone.

Beloved and devoted mother of the late Kim Longo. Sister of the late Robert Scarpato, Richard Scarpato, Raymond Scarpato, Ronald Scarpato, Thomas Scarpato, Darlene Scarpato, and Frank Scarpato. Sister-in-law of Mel Scarpato, Phyllis Scarpato, and Vicki Scarpato. Also survived by many nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great great niece and great great nephew.

Longtime resident of the Jersey Shore and faithful parishioner of The Holy Trinity Parish, Epiphany Church in Longport, NJ, Betty passed away peacefully on September 8, 2025, at the age of 96.

Betty will be remembered as a devoted wife and Kim's loving mother. She cherished her family, enjoyed dining out, and delighted in the attention she received when people learned she was in her nineties. At 96 years young, Betty was always dressed to the nines, radiating elegance and grace. Her beautiful smile and unmistakable red hair will be deeply missed by her loved ones, cherished friends and wonderful neighbors. Born in Coney Island, NY, and raised in South Philadelphia, Betty eventually made Longport her longtime home.
