“ Joe, as a 55-Year Retreatant with the Mid-May group, you helped bring men to God at St Joseph's-in-the-Hills. These men, along with sons, cousins, and friends were all made better because of you. And their families shared in their blessings.

All of your brothers will miss you. I share the the last words of our Patron Saint, Thérèse of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face:

"Oh I love Him...My God I love you."

Prosit!

“ In our lives we meet all type of people. If your lucky you meet special ones. I was very lucky and met many special people while working for the Navy at the Navy Yard. Joe was more than just special. Besides being an excellent crane operator, when he was an operator, Joe became a foreman and became an excellent leader. It was obvious to all that he was respected by the men who were assigned to him, but also his peers and his managers. I've had the luxury of working with Joe closely on a number of occasions and despite some of those occasions being pressure packed, he always succeeded. Yes, Joe was one of those "Special People." But he was, at all times, a good man. Those who knew him are better, just for having him in their lives. There's a hole in the world now that he is gone. Fair winds and following seas my friend. My deepest condolences to the Murray Family.
