“ Ran into Mark the other day and he told me about Phil's passing. Shocking terrible news. My brother, Phil, Mark and I were the best of friends growing up on 12th Street. My older brother would terrorize us growing up but it was always good to have Phillip to avoid the beatings and play baseball or 'chink' at Southern or on Sartain street until someone inevitably roofed the ball. if not we spent many days playing Nintendo in Phil's basement. I am truly sorry to hear about Phil's passing and hope that he rests in peace.

“ Phil was my first friend when I moved to Camac street when we were 5 years old. I am shocked to hear this news my prayers are with the whole family. Joan so sorry to hear my mother Linda and father Dominick also sending their condolences. I will always remember growing up together and playing baseball at Columbus park to growing up together hanging out everyday. My prayers are with the whole family including his wife I never met and son who I met when Phil was walking his dog . Rest in piece my friend until we meet again. My love goes out to all.

Phil.... I still can't believe you are not on this earth. I think of you every single day. My heart is broken. A piece of it forever gone. I think you knew how much I loved you. I'm blessed we had 5 1/2 yrs together and experienced so much. Some of my best memories are with you. Janine & I spoke a few times. Her and Rocco are really hurting without you. Keep being their angel & watch over your sweet mom too

I'll see you on the other side Philip Roman💔

“ Phileechee, Rocco and I will cherish all the memories and love and laughs and bed breakingforever and ever babe! I can't believe I'm even writing this in here right now. I'm forever grateful for the time you spent with us and the father that you were. I'm sure that you're watching over us already . You have made a mark in this city seeing all our friends and friends of yours that are reaching out and saying such wonderful things about you!! Thank you for giving us the beautiful Sabella name. I'm forever grateful for having you in my life and heart forever! Until we meet again
