

TUCCI

June 26, 2023

Anthony E. Tucci, 86, of Philadelphia, PA, took his final breath on June 23, 2023, surrounded by his loved ones at his bedside. Anthony was the devoted husband of Irene (nee Terruso). Beloved father of Mario, Marsia, Marcella, and Marcello, and grandfather of two grandchildren. He was the brother to Marie Tucci and the late John Tucci and the late Francis Tucci.

Anthony was known as a kind and gentle man who was devoted to the Catholic church. He was admired and loved tremendously by his family, coworkers, neighbors, and the community. He was a veteran in the US Army Reserves and was honorably discharged as a sharpshooter. Anthony graduated from Villanova University as an electrical engineer and had a successful career with the government until his retirement. Above all, he will always be remembered as the most dedicated husband known to mankind. All of his existence was devoted to the happiness, health, and wellness of his wife Irene.

Anthony's viewing will be held at Stella Maris Church 2901 South 10th St. in South Philadelphia on Thursday, June 29th, at 9 am with the funeral to follow at 10 am. The burial will be held at St. Joseph's Cemetery 240, Lower Landing Road in Blackwood, NJ 08012.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Ronald McDonald House at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

“ What a great man! When someone we love leaves this world, I try not to focus on the pain we are all feeling. I think of the joy he is feeling in returning to his heavenly home. I so love the picture attached to this obituary for that reason. I will miss my Uncle Tony as will all of us. But in just a relatively brief while, we will return as well and get to see him again. My prayers have been going out to Aunt Irene, my cousins, and the whole Tucci family.

“ Farewell Uncle Tony, your abundant warm-heartedness and good humor were always contagious and always appreciated. You were a blessing to my parents and to all of us. The welcome I felt in South Philly always is a big reason the city is a part of my soul to this day, as is my love for great Italian food! My love and prayers go out Aunt Irene and all the Tucci's.

“ Dear Tucci Family,
It is always difficult to lose someone you love. Be comforted by knowing that God is with you and you have the blessed hope of seeing him and being with him in heaven one day. I hope that every memory of Anthony brings a smile to your face and brightens your day.

With sincerest sympathy,
The Brown Family

“ My dear, dear Bro. Scriptures tell us "... rather leave the body and go HOME to the LORD". So, while my heart is broken, my comfort is that you are HOME with the LORD. Thanks for always being there for me especially math challenges. Say "hello" to Dad, Mom, John and Fran. You will be missed, for sure. Love 💕 you more, Marie (MAWA)

“ My heart and prayers are with Mr. Tucci's family, friends, and with his daughter, Marcella, whom I consider the greatest of friends. May the sorrow of his passing fade into the joy that love isn't just memory, but is always present-always exists, forever.

“ RIP Uncle Tony. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Tucci Family. He was one of the nicest and kindest people I've ever met. I have many fond memories of family vacations in the Poconos, Mummers Parades, Phillies games, and family gatherings while growing up. Simply the Best!

“ Anthony and Irene were the cousins of my dear, late wife, Janet. We saw them many times at family events, and it was always a pleasure and comfort to be with them. Anthony was a consummate gentleman, a great father, and a loving husband. My thoughts and prsyers are with Irene and their family.

“ Anthony is with the saints in Heaven now no doubt. He will always be remembered for his kindness to others, love of family, and his sense of humor that was uplifting. When I was in my teens, I remember Anthony and three of his friends recoding a song on our "new" device called a tape recorded. What a great voice and harmony his barbershop quartet had. The last I saw him was about a year ago and he hadn't changed a bit - the same caring, happy cousin with a huge smile. God blessed him and his family!

“ Our dearest Tucci Family,
No words can fully describe the deep, deep hole that losing our forever friend has made in our hearts.
I cannot get through a single day without thinking of him and having a good cry.
He was your Mom's rock.....they were so devoted to each other and depended on each other for everything.
Your Dad is free now, at peace and with our Lord.....the ones he left behind will remember him till they meet again in Heaven.
R.I.P. our beloved Anthony.....we will never forget you 💔💔💔💔
